NOTICE

BOG in its 39th meeting decided to discontinue the medical facility on cashless basis in Tata Main Hospital, Jamshedpur at their prescribed rates for the employees and their dependents with effect from 1st September, 2019.

However, employees and their dependents may get themselves treated at Tata Main Hospital on their own. They may submit the medical bill along with prescription for reimbursement in the prescribed form to institute dispensary. The reimbursement will be made as per CS (MA) rules on CGHS rates. Medicines prescribed by TMH have to be purchased from the institute empanelled medicine shops only as being practice presently.

Further, institute is requesting TMH authority for admitting the institute employees or their dependents for Indoor Patient Treatment in case of emergency without depositing the required money at the time of admission. Employee will clear all dues before being discharged from hospital. In case, an employee does not clear the dues at the time of discharge, institute will recover all dues from their salary/retirement benefits, as applicable, for payment to TMH. This will be effective if agreed upon by TMH authority.
